

WELCOME TO BUESCHER LAW GROUP, PLLC

Consider This!

Only a licensed Arizona attorney can give you legal advice regarding divorce and family law issues in Arizona. Document preparation services, paralegals and any other unlicensed company cannot give you legal advice on divorce and family law issues. A divorce filing is a civil lawsuit that requires many tasks and raises many questions. These tasks and questions can best be addressed by competent legal counsel through a confidential attorney client relationship.

Family Law in Arizona

Limited Scope Representation ~ Fees determined on a case-by-case basis

- Flat fee for handling all or a portion of your case which is determined based upon the complexity of the task.
- Family Law Attorney & Counselor Jan M. Buescher will file a Notice of Limited Scope Appearance with the Court stating specifically what her role will be in your case.
- Stay in touch with us through telephone and email to receive follow up advice and to have your questions answered.
- Get $100.00 off future legal services when you refer a friend or family member.

Limited Scope Representation is for people who do not wish to represent themselves in court or who want someone to prepare documents on their behalf and lead them through the court system. It is designed for those who need an attorney to handle only one or more specific aspects of their case. You know what the fee will be before any work is begun on your issue or case. Limited Scope Representation allows you to be assured of what legal services you are getting and what the actual price is for those services. Just like a menu in a restaurant, you will know exactly what to expect before committing to anything. There aren't too many lawyers out there who will tell you up front how much your legal services will cost before you retain them.
